The image shows the musical notation for the second part of the hymn. It consists of two staves of music in G major, with lyrics in Russian written below the notes. The first staff begins with a forte dynamic (f) and includes a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth-note patterns. The second staff continues the melody with a similar rhythmic pattern. The lyrics describe the blessedness of those who are righteous and the glory of God.

A blank musical staff consisting of five horizontal lines and four spaces. Above the staff, there is a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a tempo marking of 120 BPM.

A musical score page showing two staves. The top staff is for the orchestra, featuring multiple parts for strings (violin I, violin II, viola, cello) and woodwind (oboe, bassoon). The bottom staff is for the piano. The music consists of two measures of sixteenth-note patterns.

A blank musical staff consisting of five horizontal lines and four spaces. There are ten vertical stems, each ending in a small circle, positioned above the staff line.
